No. TEC/06-02/2017-TC

Dated: 14.10.2019

Office Memorandum

Sub: Relaxation of Customer Premises Equipment with RF interface from testing against IEC:60215 standards

Several requests regarding relaxation of Customer Premises Equipment with RF interface from testing against IEC:60215 standards have been received from the manufacturers. The issue has been deliberated upon.

It has now been decided that Customer Premises Equipment with RF interface shall not require testing against IEC:60215 standards. However, other telecom equipment with RF interface will continue to be tested against IEC:60215 standards.
